

a weekend in ...

TUNBRIDGE WELLS

We're taking a tour of the thriving town of Tunbridge Wells, finding all the best spots to eat, drink, stay and enjoy exciting entertainment

WHERE TO SHOP

KATA JEWELLERY

A real hidden gem is KATA Jewellery, on St. John's Road, Tunbridge Wells. A small family-run boutique, KATA Jewellery is much more than a jewellery shop. With their workshop on site, they carry out repairs, alterations and restorations, but the real jewel in their crown is their bespoke and remodelling work – they have tremendous skill creating forever jewels to be treasured. Alongside their own collection, they exhibit local artists making it a wonderful creative space to visit. katajewellery.com

COUNTY CLOTHES

For men's fashion, County Clothes Menswear offers extensive ranges of formal and casual wear, in classic and contemporary styles. Expect premium brands like Meyer Trousers, Barbour, Geox, Eterna and Roy Robson and there's also a personal tailoring service, giving you the opportunity of styling your suit or jacket to your own individual taste. There's a fantastic mix of accessories and over a hundred men's footwear options, all spread over two floors (2,100 sq ft). The principles of Quality and Personal Service are much in evidence, so pop in and take a look. Learn more at countyclothesmenswear.co.uk

SUSIE WATSON DESIGNS

Susie Watson Designs are known for their timeless English style, handmade craftsmanship and unique designs that capture the imagination. The extensive collection of handmade furniture, fabrics, wallpapers and paints make it easy and enjoyable to put a scheme together. With 10 stores nationwide, designer and founder Susie Watson and her daughter Anna, continue to develop lovely home and garden products. The beautiful Royal Tunbridge Wells showroom's friendly team of designers can offer expert advice, and you can even arrange a home visit – just phone 01892 521859 or email tunbridge.wells@susiewatsondesigns.co.uk. susiewatsondesigns.co.uk

